

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to the new fiscal year! I don't know what made me type that, but maybe some of you don't know when the diocesan fiscal year begins and ends. Anyway, this new fiscal year looks as good as our old fiscal years. It will probably be better. We can all hope so.

I hope you either did check or will check our diocesan CMAA status. We only have to come up with $2,031 to make our goal. Of course, I hope we exceed our goal. Remember, we get a 70% rebate on any money paid beyond our set goal. So far, our pledged amount is $25,814, so, as it is, if we pay that present pledged amount, we'll receive a rebate of $499.80. We exceeded our goal far better than that in past years. Wouldn't it be nice to get, maybe, $3,000 back? Sure it would.

So far, Father Rickert has been here a week. No, we haven't killed each other. Quite the opposite. I knew we would get along great and we sure are. He couldn't tell me enough about how kind and welcoming to him you all were last weekend. Remember, this has been Father's dream assignment for quite a few years. Let's continue making him want to stay here.

Beginning this weekend – for the Extraordinary Form only – all Sunday Masses will be “Low” Masses. Our wonderful music department will be taking at least a month and a half off to relax and enjoy the summer. When we start up again, all of our musicians, volunteers and professionals, should be “fresh as a daisy.”

By the time you read this, Father Saguto will be firmly ensconced in his new parish. He'll be with Fr. John Brancich at St. Stanislaus in Nashua, NH. They're old friends so things should work out very nicely. Again we thank him so very much for his work and service here. I know we'll miss him very much, but we'll also be happy that he now has a wonderful assignment. But, still, this place is the best, right, my dear family? God bless you all.

Father Magiera

CMAA Report:

St. Joseph's Goal for 2023:	$25,100

Amount Paid to Date:	$23,069
Balance Due to Pledged Amount:	$ 2,745
Amount Due to Goal Amount:	$ 2,031

The appeal is just over 4 months “old,” and we’re a mere $2K+ away from our goal. Let’s keep our terrific record. We can do this!

Rectory Renovations Update

The rectory re-flooring project is going well. The 2nd floor is completely done. The main floor will be completed by the end of next week. It’s a difficult job, and it wreaks havoc on Fr Mageria’s respiratory system, but the end product will be stunning.
