

Dear Parishioners,

Your pastor has survived three weeks of solitude. Actually, I enjoyed the solitude. It was nice to be responsible to and consider no one else other than myself. Such things are good, once in a while. However, when I consider the past three weekends, I certainly changed my tune – at least for the weekends themselves. Yes, I haven't experienced such stringent schedules in quite a while. So, yes, I wish Father Rickert had made an appearance – at least on the Sundays. So, yes, even though, I reveled in my solitude, I'm very glad that Father returned last Monday.

Before I forget, please remember the increased/varied Mass schedule this ensuing week. Since Monday is the Feast of the Most Precious Blood – a first class feast – there will be two Masses, i.e., the normal morning Mass at 7:30 AM and also a 6:00 PM Sung Mass. Since Thursday is July 4, the morning Mass will be at 9:00 AM, not 7:30 AM. Finally, since Friday is First Friday, there will be two Masses, the normal morning Mass at 7:30 AM and a 6:00 PM Low Mass.

I also call your attention to something new, this summer season, namely Theology on Tap. Check out the info blurb in this bulletin and then for the next three bulletins. Looks interesting. I did one of those several years ago, on liturgical music.

So, schedules and plans return to normal for a while. That said, get ready for it: I'll be going on vacation soon. I'll be leaving after the Thursday 7:30 AM Mass Thursday, August 8 and I'll return in the PM on Monday, August 26. I'll be going to Florida with my brother in law. He tells me he's going to redo his condo in Naples – primarily because I'll be planning my retirement there "sometime." Of course, I don't know exactly when that will be, but it's gonna come sometime. Hint – I plan on retiring while I can still walk. Can't imagine going to the beach in a wheel chair.

God bless you, my dear family.

Father Magiera

Hand-Carved Olive Wood Gifts from the Holy Land

Proceeds benefit Catholic schools in the Holy Land.

Did you know that 600 Christian families living in Bethlehem are completely dependent on carving olive wood figurines for their livelihood? The recent clashes in the Middle East have stopped the tourism industry in Bethlehem, causing most of those families serious harm in earning their living and forcing many of them to leave their homeland. Emptying the land of Christ from Christians can have tragic consequences on the Holy sites. Issam, from the "Star of Bethlehem" group came to the United States with a mission to help those families by selling their beautiful religious handicrafts. The cost of goods goes to benefit the Christian carvers to keep them working in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, the profit from sales goes directly to the needy Catholic schools and clinics in the Holy Land. The Star of Bethlehem has been approved by many bishops and dioceses of Jerusalem. Please show your generosity to our Brothers and Sisters in the Holy Land. Please take a look at those beautiful artifacts on June 29th & 30th.
